LOOKING AHEAD

'No need to recall the past

No need to think about what was done before.
See, I am doing a new deed.' (Isaiah 43:18-19)

'All I can say is that I forget the past and I strain ahead for what is to come (Phil. 3:13)

These words taken from the 1st and 2nd Readings today provide an introduction to our dramatic Gospel Reading.

Jesus speaking to the woman in the Gospel says 'neither do I condemn you'. He wants her to start again, to begin afresh, not to look back but to look ahead.

Jesus doesn't rake over the woman's past. He doesn't ask her about the claims of her accusers. He doesn't condemn or criticize her. Instead, he accepts her, loves her, treats her with the respect and dignity that was lacking in the mob. Jesus gently helps her to move forward into a new way of living.

Jesus always adopted a sympathetic attitude towards sinners. He welcomed them and befriended them and tried to show them a better way. The mission of the Church is to be a place of forgiveness so that when we fail, we may experience the love and compassion of Jesus and be less judgemental of others.

Thanks to all who bought raffle tickets for the Easter Hampers. All the money will go towards the Ukrainian Appel fund. Thanks to Theresa Fernandes for donating the hampers. The draw will take place on Easter Sunday morning at the end of the Masses – so there is still time to buy more tickets!

Thank you for your great generosity and kindness. The lovely thing about kindness we do for others, is that it benefits us as much as the people for whom we do it. When we treat people kindly a sweetness falls like dew into our hearts.

INVOLVEMENT IN PARISH ACTIVITIES

Further to the recent mentions in the newsletter regarding the re-opening of activities here at St Lawrence, we are looking at putting together a group of parishioners who may be interested in fund raising for the parish. Previously we've held tea/coffee mornings, international food gatherings, Passover meal, seniors party, barbecues and more. We believe this is a great way for us to interact with others in our parish community. If it is something that you have been involved with in the past or would like to now, please contact Cathy Early on 07713 983485. Thank you.
