MARY'S DESTINATION

'The destination of this bus has been changed, please listen for further announcements'

Such words strike fear and annoyance into the hearts of many of us as our journeys are disrupted by forces beyond our control. The destination we had assumed we were headed for is altered, and so begins a tiresome process of changing buses and inevitable delay. If you are like me then you will value certainty, whether on a simple bus journey or in life's big issues.

For Mary, our Mother, the only thing she could be certain of was God's love, and her high calling to bear his Son, Jesus. In her 'Magnificat' she sings of the Lord's mercy which endures 'from age to age'. Mary is faithful and obedient to her vocation, what's more, she trusts implicitly in God.

On Wednesday we celebrate the Assumption of Mary into Heaven. Her destination is assured, and it is to be with her Son in the glory where he dwells. Consider the various uncertainties in Mary's life - her pregnancy at an early age, the vulnerability of childbirth in a harsh context, watching Jesus act in accordance with his Father's will, regardless of the consequences. Perhaps the only certainty for Mary was that she would find her true home - her destination - in Heaven with her blessed Son.

Try to put aside some time this week to reflect on what this means for you, in midst of the 'changes and chances of this fleeting world.'

Our Lady, Queen of Heaven - Pray for us!

Daniel Humphreys
