Seventh Sunday of the Year (Missal Page 139): Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18; Psalm 102;
1 Corinthians 3:16-23; Matthew 5:38-48

Dear Friends,

A young French doctor fell deeply in love with her, and made her several proposals of marriage. But it was not to be. No wedding took place. She always declined. She had her heart and mind set on a life of complete service to the sick, suffering and dying. But that was not to be either. Why? Because she was far too sick herself. She suffered from chronic asthma, frequent chest pains, an aneurism, cancer of the knee, bone decay, and abscesses in both her ears that inflicted partial deafness. In this terrible state she died, at the early age of 35. She had become a nun, a Sister of Charity. Today we know her as Bernadette Soubirous - Saint Bernadette of Lourdes. No miracle of healing was worked for Bernadette. She lived with much suffering and pain, and she died with much suffering and pain. Our Lady of Lourdes did not heal her.

Lourdes is among the greatest places of pilgrimage in the world. Perhaps you have been there. Millions of people, many of them very sick, make the pilgrimage there every year. Very few of these sick pilgrims are healed physically. The cancerous return home with cancer. The paralysed return paralysed. The blind return without sight. Those with AIDS remain infected. The true miracle of Lourdes is not the healing of bodies, but the healing that takes place within, true inner healing: the healing of the heart, the mind, the soul. It is the mystery of the Cross. True healing removes every obstacle that prevents us from accepting and embracing our cross. And this, ultimately, is the only healing that matters. True healing does not replace the cross. True healing gives the sick person a peace that cannot be destroyed by the ravages of cancer. It gives an experience of the love and compassion of God that no illness can shatter. True healing is the fruit of true faith, a faith that learns to trust all God's purposes.

True faith can believe and trust beyond understanding. It can enter suffering without anger. True faith can face pain without cursing God. It can bless God from a wounded, hurt or broken heart. This kind of faith confounds human wisdom. Human wisdom demands health and success. Human wisdom demands wealth and prosperity for its happiness. This false wisdom is scandalised by suffering. It turns away its face in front of old age. And it is struck dumb in the face of death and the grave. True faith instead is the real miracle of Lourdes. It is a moral miracle. Bernadette had this faith. And each one of us, need it. You need it, and I need it, in order to make sense of our lives. We need it at times of great suffering or crisis, in our families, our relationships. We need it when injustice fills us with anger and when our problems seem insoluble. We need it when people we love suffer in body or mind, and we do not seem able to help them.

On Tuesday 11th of February was the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes and normally is World Day of Prayer and Intercession for the sick – we celebrated it on Saturday 15th of February, for all the sick who are very close to us, and the sick who are far away. Through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes and Saint Bernadette, may we, together with all the sick in our parish and beyond, receive the grace of true FAITH, and true HEALING, that leads to true PEACE.

Fr Fortunato.

MISSIO

Monsignor Canon James Cronin, National Director of Missio has recently returned from Cambodia where the Church is in much need of our prayers. This Lent, he would like parishes to consider supporting a future priest in a mission country like Cambodia. It costs over £700 to train a seminarian for one year with £200 raised locally by the seminarian's family, parish and diocese, however in reality it is almost impossible for them to raise the remaining £500. There will be a special collection the weekend of 1st/2nd March for this special appeal from Missio.
