Friendship Is The Noblest Revenge

Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel Jesus gives us a new set of values. He has come to share a new vision, a fresh outlook, with those who choose to follow him.

If we share his outlook, his spirit, then joy should be ours and will mark us out as his followers. This joy will overflow into our relationships, our homes, our work and worship. Jesus calls us to be people of love, and this love is to be shared with everyone. No one is excluded.

Yes it's difficult to turn the other cheek - yes it's difficult to forgive someone who has hurt us. But today Jesus invites us to persevere in following him. Jesus was able to be an instrument of healing and peace and so can we. There are many opportunities each week for us to show the compassion and love of Jesus.

Nelson Mandela once said: "No one is born hating another person because of the colour of his skin, or his background, or his religion. People learn to hate, and if they learn to hate they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than it's opposite"
