Ash Wednesday (Page 149): Joel 2:12-18; Psalm 50; 2 Corinthians 5:20, 6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18
Next Week: First Sunday of Lent (Page 153): Deuteronomy 26:4-10; Psalm 90; Romans 10:8-13; Luke 4:1-13

Dear Friends,

I must admit that in today's Gospel I find the imagery quite surreal, Jesus warns against empty talk and the hypocrisy of moralising to others when our own sins may be even greater:

"Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the plank in your own?"

I do sometimes doubt that any of us can be 100% relied upon (certainly not me) and our credibility is tested each and every day by our own actions. In many ways that is a pity because as Catholic Christians we do have a message that people need to hear, the wonderful good news that sin and death do not have the last word. There have always been terrible sins that diminish humanity, (at the time of writing there is a very real threat of war and violence in Ukraine). But through his death and resurrection Christ has overcome sin, and death has been swallowed up in victory.

Such a message is wonderful news. The only problem I can see is the credibility of the messengers. I realise this is difficult but we should resist the temptation to blame others for resisting the Gospel message and allow it to do its work within us.

As we prepare to embark upon our Lenten journey could we consider that in addition to abstaining from takeaways or alcohol or whatever, that we could additionally undertake to live the reality of God's love that we celebrate in the Eucharist, where we will find a real conversion of heart that alone can make us credible witnesses of God's love and of Christ's power to bring about changes so radical, that their fruits will be evident in our lives. Surely others will then see that our words and actions flow out of what fills our hearts.

Have a blessed week and a blessed Lent,

Deacon Colin

WELCOME BACK TO YOUR MINISTRIES.

Thanks be to God that things have improved a lot better and we are able to gather more than before since the pandemic to worship as one family of God. All those in the various ministries pre-Covid – Welcomers, Readers, Extra-Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Altar Servers, Cleaners, Choir, Flower Arrangers, Counters – please come take up your ministries, if you haven't done so already; and are able and willing to continue to serve in these ministries.

For those in the Welcoming, Reader, Extra-Ordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Counter and Cleaning ministries, please see the lists at the back of the church where you can put down your name as an expression of continuing interest to serve in the various ministries. These lists will become our working document going forward. Do put down your name on the list, if you have not already done so, for the ministry you were involved in pre-Covid.

NEW ARRANGEMENT FOR THE RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

We are so blessed in this parish to have so great a number of parishioners coming to Mass. This new arrangement we shall be introducing is to ensure that people are not walking into one another as they go back to their seats after receiving Jesus in Holy Communion and to do so reverently. From the First Sunday in Lent, when this new arrangement will begin, those sitting on the Baptismal Font side of the church and by the side aisle on Our Lady side of the church will be ushered first to come through the back and down the central aisle and go back through the side aisles. Next will be those sitting on both sides of the main nave of the church coming through the central aisle and going back to their seats through the side aisles. PLEASE wait for the stewards to call you up. For those in the porch and choir loft the arrangement remains the same but please remain in your places and a Minister will come to you.
