COMPASSION AND LOVE

The parable of the Good Samaritan goes to the heart of the Gospel.

1. Sometimes we are the ones who are wounded, perhaps by events or illness and we need help. It can leave us feeling stranded and helpless.
2. Other times we can be in the role of the passer-by. We are confronted with a decision to help or not, often it can disturb us because it puts us to the test.
3. Thankfully sometimes we have acted like the Samaritan. Very often I have heard people speaking about their loved ones who have died saying 'he/she would go out of their way to help someone'. It's a real joy to hear about the goodness of people.

The Good Samaritan is a model for us. Jesus says to us today 'go and do the same'. The real Gospel gift is to allow the power of God's word not only to challenge us but to change us and since we are still on our journey in this life may we put the words of Jesus into action.

We are now coming to the end of our Sacramental Programmes for this year. I would like to thank all who helped in anyway in the sacramental preparations. Thank you for giving up your time to help and share your faith with others. Thanks to everyone who helps in our parish in anyway. It is so much appreciated.

Happy you who care,
you let people know they are loved.
Happy you who are gentle,
you help people to grow.
Happy you who listen,
you lighten many a burden
Happy are you who recognise your own need to receive,
you will be able to give all the more.

Amen

FR. JOHN
