MY JOURNEY TO THE DIACONATE

Looking back at my journey, it seems that my years in Formation have gone by rather fast. Being accepted into Formation, I knew it would take a lot of my time and myself and my family having to make a lot of sacrifices, yet I also knew the Holy Spirit would be a continued guide for me along the way.

A vocation is a mystery of divine election, of God's call to your heart, to you personally. He has called you by name, He chose you from among many. "It was not you who chose me, but I chose you" (Jn 15:16)

Jesus has invited us to follow him more closely. One day you hear the voice of Christ in your heart telling you to 'follow me' it is a call to renounce other options in life and to choose this path of closeness and intimacy with Him, but it is not an empty renunciation. It is a call to leave something good for something greater for a life in which your human and spiritual potential will be expended for the service of the kingdom of God and for the good of humanity.

Therefore, Formation has the purpose of transformation, to be formed is not simply to be "informed" with new ideas. It is rather to acquire a "new form" a new life "until Christ is formed in you" (Gal 4:19). It means a transformation of the entire person - your way of thinking, feeling, loving, reacting, acting, serving, and relating to others. "This is how one should regard himself, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy" (1Cor 4:1-2). We are servants of the gift received and stewards of the graces of salvation for others.

On the 23rd of July 2022, God willing, I will be ordained as a Permanent Deacon at Westminster Cathedral. I would like to thank you all for your prayers and support and I invite you to celebrate this special occasion with me and my family.

Pray for me.

Rolly
