Dear Friends

If any of us ever needed a reminder of how quickly things can change then all we need to do is reflect upon the events of the last eighteen months or so. Already it seems a distant memory of a time when we could fill our church until it was overflowing, to a time when we could travel anywhere we wanted, we could go to the cinema or theatre, and perhaps hardest of all we are no longer allowed to visit our loved ones who are in hospital or care homes.

How wonderful must it have been on the first Palm Sunday to witness Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. The crowds who had heard his teaching and witnessed his miracles were so happy to see him that they wanted to make him King. A few days later on Good Friday, that same crowd, by now a jury, convicted Jesus, scourged him, placed a crown of thorns upon his head and brutally ended his life upon a cross.

The crucifixion, which reminds us that Jesus died a terrible death does not end on Good Friday. He will rise from the dead on Easter Sunday and proclaim to His disciples and the entire world "Peace be with you, I am with you until the end of time." And from that moment of sadness when Jesus was in the tomb the disciples went out into the world to proclaim that "He is risen".

In some small way we are, each of us, experiencing a passion because we cannot do what we would like to do. Personally, I find it difficult to stand outside church when it is nowhere near full, (but is full under social distancing guidelines) and I have to tell parishioners (some of whom I have known all my life) that they cannot attend Mass. However, I also believe that because we are people of Christ (Easter People), we will return to our pre-pandemic lives, and when we do, we will be better people because we will learn from this experience and that in spite of death, the new life that Easter brings to us will renew our lives as followers of Christ.

Have a Blessed Holy Week and even if you are unable attend any of our services remember we are still a community held together in prayer because prayer is the glue that has always bonded us together, and will always be the glue that bonds us all together.

God Bless you all.

Deacon Colin

REMINDER: Please remember to leave the Church promptly at the end of Mass. You should not mix outside church and you are encouraged to go straight home after Mass

Bidding Prayers for the week:

We turn to God in prayer, asking for the gift of the Holy Spirit in our hearts and in our lives.

-We pray for the Church: may we always be a haven of peace and welcome for all who are in need.

- We pray for those entering the Church at this time: may these final days of preparation be a time of transforming grace.

- We pray that God will shelter all persecuted Christians and make their witness effective for the redemption of all.

-We pray for all our parishioners and local community who are in any sort of need: may we go to their help and support with understanding and care.

- For people who are sick and feel they are a burden, for all who are in hospital and residential care, for those suffering with Covid-19, and for all those who love and care for them.

-For all the faithful departed: that they may find rest for their souls and be led rejoicing through the gates of paradise.

Father, may the mystery of our Lord's death and resurrection transform our lives and lead us all to share in his glory. We make our prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

REST IN PEACE

We pray for the repose of the soul of Edna Smith, Joseph Steer and Thomas Moran and all those who have passed away recently.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine on them. May they rest in peace. Amen.
