EASING OF LOCKDOWN ..... GETTING CLOSER .....

The days between the Ascension (last Thursday) and Pentecost (next Sunday) have come to be regarded as the original 'Novena' as a time of more intense prayer for the coming of the Holy Spirit.

Today's Gospel is part of Jesus' prayer for his friends who experience difficulties. He makes the same prayer for us today in our difficult times of Covid 19.

In the next few weeks there will be an easing of restrictions to the lockdown. How do we prepare for gradual re-opening up of our parish? Lockdown has been so difficult for many of us. If you live alone, how did you find lockdown? Not being able to come to church. How do you feel about coming back? Are you fearful?

If you are parents, how did the children cope with lockdown? Did they miss coming to Mass? How was the First Communion preparation on Zoom and the Sunday School on Zoom? For our young people how was the Confirmation Programme on Zoom?

If you have been involved in any of our parish ministries, are you willing to continue. If you are not involved in any parish activity would you like to join? Eucharistic ministers, readers, altar servers, choirs helping with Confirmation and First Holy Communion Programmes or any other activities?

Was lockdown for you a time for more prayer and spiritual reading? Have you experienced difficulties during lockdown – bereavement here or abroad? Unemployment? Stress? Financial problems?

How should we begin to open up? Should it be a slow process, perhaps 40-hours devotion, prayer before the Blessed Sacrament or an International Mass bringing all our different communities together and involving the school children.

It would be good to hear your views. You can email me johnbyrne@rcdow.org.uk or phone me or text me on the mobile: 0787 905 8732.

Thank you for the feed-back. It is very much appreciated. From what I have seen so far, the advice is to open-up slowly and carefully and not to rush things. If you haven't given your thoughts, please do so.

With Jesus praying for us, how could we ever lose hope in these difficult times. Today we are reassured of his care for us.

FR. JOHN

REMINDER: Please remember to leave the Church promptly at the end of Mass. You should not mix outside church and you are encouraged to go straight home after Mass

Ascension of the Lord and the 7th Sunday of Easter.

Motivation for John 17:11-19

"Last Thursday we celebrated the Ascension of the Lord and the Sunday after next is the great feast of Pentecost. Let us give thanks to the Lord for the liturgy that guides us and teaches us, opening our minds and our hearts to understand the mystery of our salvation, ever deeper, year after year. Never think you already know but listen! with the ear of your heart.

The Gospel of the Ascension will speak about "signs" which accompany those who believe. What are those signs? Have you seen them in your life? Or in the life of others? The Lord is gone, but his presence is continually revealed to us in these signs. The Lord is gone, in a sense, and yet his presence is magnetically and irresistibly pulling us up towards him.

The Gospel of the 7th Sunday of Easter will further explain to us our present situation: in the world, but not of the world, set apart for Christ. We have been raised up with him in Baptism. Now we are called in hope to where he has preceded us in glory. Watch out for the very last verse! It is about you and me, here and now. What does it say? What is it saying to you?"

Bidding Prayers for the week:

Let us pray to the Father for the needs of the Church and the world.

-We pray for ourselves and all Christians: that we may love one another with the love that comes from God.

- For our children preparing to receive their First Holy Communion this weekend: may the gift of the Holy Eucharistic draw them into an unending friendship with the Lord.

For the people in India, Brazil and other countries where the pandemic is out of control:

- For people who are sick and feel they are a burden, for all who are in hospital and residential care, for those suffering with Covid-19, and for all those who love and care for them.

- We pray that all baptised people may learn to experience and recognise the Spirit of God at work in the world and in their lives.

-For all the faithful departed: that they may find rest for their souls and be led rejoicing through the gates of paradise.

God our Father, grant that we be filled with your holy Spirit and love one another through Christ our Lord. Amen.
