Psalm 32; Romans 8:14-17; Matthew 28:16-20

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This week is the great feast of Pentecost. The readings tell us that on Pentecost day the disciples heard a strong driving wind, saw tongues of flames, and then received amazing gifts of the Spirit, enabling them to proclaim and witness. But, I ask to myself, why? Why did they have to receive the Spirit to do that? The answer I found is this: because they were poor men, like you, like me; they'd been casting their nets in the lake or collecting taxes at the gates of the city. We may remember that amongst them all there was not even a learned man, and the one whom they called Master was dead and buried in a tomb. But then he was raised from the dead and ascended into heaven from where now he directs operation more fully and completely by sending forth his powerful Spirit. And the Spirit will empower and encourage his followers.

YES, they will be fortified, because they had a heart in their breast, like you, like me, gripped by a fear cold as ice, eyes that were dry, unable to cry anymore and faces pale with fever. They surely were thinking about their lost friend, about the woman left at the door of the house, about the cross standing at the top of the hill. Then suddenly ... the wind shook the door of the house, it entered wildly into the room, and they had eyes and voices of fire; they rushed out to sing their joy in the street. And today they are telling you and me: 'Man, you who wait hidden in shadow, the voice that is calling is really for you; it brings you joy, it brings you good news: the Kingdom of God has already come!'

This is what happens at Pentecost. The Church receives spectacular charisms of miracle-working, healing, and the speaking in tongues, and such gifts are given to us for one reason: the building up of the Body of Christ; we participate in the reign of Christ whenever we act in accordance with the Holy Spirit. Therefore, today if you feel a breeze from heaven, a wind shaking the doors of your heart, do not be afraid, but listen, it's a voice that is calling you, inviting you to travel afar; and there will be a fire arising in the man who is waiting, in him who cherishes hopes of love. May God bless you all. Pray for me.

Fr Fortunato
