Dear Friends,

According to a Jewish legend there was once a blind man who was married but had no children. Although his life was hard, he never complained. One day as the blind man was sitting by a river, the prophet Elijah came to him from heaven and said, "Even though your life has been hard, you never complained, and so God will grant you one wish." The poor man frowned. "Only one wish!" he said. "I'm blind, I'm poor, and I'm childless. How will one wish satisfy all my problems? But give me twenty-four hours and I'll think up a wish." He went home and told his wife what had happened. She smiled at him and said, "Eat well and sleep soundly, for I know what you should wish." He came back the next morning and said to Elijah as he appeared again, "I wish to be able to see my children eat from gold plates." The wish was granted and the man and his wife lived happily for the rest of their days. Today's Gospel presents another blind man whose wish was to regain his sight. Jesus restored sight to his eyes and to his spirit, and Bartimaeus immediately began to follow Jesus as a sighted, witnessing disciple.

Two famous prayers for spiritual vision: Cardinal Newman prays for clear vision in his famous poem, "Lead Kindly Light":

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom; lead Thou me on!

The night is dark, and I am far from home; lead Thou me on!

Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see

The distant scene; one step enough for me.

"Amazing Grace," As the captain of a British slave ship, John Newton regained his faith during a storm at sea and became an ordained minister who was very active in the abolitionist movement. He explains how he gained his spiritual eyesight in his famous hymn, Amazing Grace.

Amazing grace!

How sweet the sound,

that saved a wretch like me!

I once was lost but now am found,

was blind but now I see.

With thanks and prayers,

Fr. John

To come on this trip you just need to be 16-35 years old and open to have a fun and life changing experience. If interested more information is available in the Church porch.
