Adoremus National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and Conference Liverpool 2018

Dear Friends,

Earlier in the month of September I was privileged (along with a few fellow parishioners) to attend the Adoremus Conference in Liverpool.

I apologise for suggesting this but sadly many of us (and I have been guilty of this myself) get up on a Sunday, go to Mass, go to Communion, go home, and then the following Sunday, get up, go to Mass, go to Communion, go home and so on. We do this without actually stopping to reflect on why we come to Mass and why we receive The Eucharist.

I can't recall an event at any time in my life that has reconnected me to the Eucharist in the way that this event has done.

Over two days we listened to keynote speakers who truly challenged us to think again about our own relationship with the Church and with the Eucharist. For example, we were reminded that the word Eucharist comes from the Greek word for thanksgiving, and that the Church is not just bricks and mortar, as that would only define the buildings. The Church is the Body of Christ and we are the Pilgrim People of God, making our way on our journey through history.

On Sunday, we had Mass celebrated by Cardinal Vincent Nichols at Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King followed by a procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the streets of Liverpool. This was attended by 2,500 people from inside the Cathedral and an estimated 6,000 people who were outside the Cathedral.

Before the procession the Cardinal reminded us that we walk as penitents, with no pride or triumphalism. We come before Our Lord Jesus Christ as beggars with little or nothing to offer. We walk with humility asking for forgiveness for we must be conscious that we are all sinners.

Before you go home today could I ask that you all look inside the back cover of the Parish Mass Book. Written there you will find a few prayers. One is titled "Jesus our Brother". Please take a few minutes to read and reflect on this beautiful prayer and then perhaps consider if there is any way you could help our parish in the future.

Finally, I realise that my comments in this newsletter have barely scratched the surface of the resources that were available to me and my fellow attendees, but if you follow the link below you will find all the keynote talks that were given in Liverpool. Some are quite long (about an hour) but they are truly inspirational and I urge you to watch and listen at your earliest opportunity. My understanding is that they will be available for 12 months and that some will also be made available on YouTube.

Have a blessed week,

Deacon Colin
